

I oppose the petition of Consumer Bankers Association. Life has been more pleasant without the calls that used to bother us. I would hate to return to the situation before Indiana's telephone solicitation law as enacted.